

Maharashtra MBBS Counselling: Exit Rules

State Common Entrance Test Cell (CET Cell), Maharashtra

DEPOSIT

None upfront

HELD INSTEAD

Original certificates

FREE EXIT

Round 1 (cash)

WORST CASE

Rs 10,00,000 bond

NO DEPOSIT, BUT ORIGINALS ARE THE COLLATERAL

Maharashtra secures your commitment by holding your certificates, not your cash.

How commitment is held

There is no large pre-allotment deposit for state-quota government seats. When you join, the college keeps your original certificates under a holding receipt until the course ends, alongside a refundable Rs 10,000 library deposit. Skip an allotment in Round 1 and you lose no money, though you can still lose the seat and your place in later rounds.

The status retention form

This one form decides your next round. Submit it and you keep your current seat and stop upgrading; the seat freezes. Leave it unsubmitted, within the float rules, and you stay in the pool for a higher choice. By CAP Round 3 the upgrades are over and an allotment must be joined.

△ THE BOND COMES LATER

Rs 10,00,000 A government MBBS seat carries a ten-lakh service bond, triggered by letting the seat lapse, skipping the one mandatory bond year, or going abroad within five years of the degree. None of it touches you during counselling; it matters the day you think about leaving the course.

✓ WEIGH THE BOND BEFORE YOU JOIN

Decide you can serve the bond year before you accept a government seat.
